

YOU ARE INVITED TO A DE-PBS WEBINAR:

BEHAVIORAL
CONSULTATION &
INTERVENTION PLANNING
WITH FAMILIES

WITH SPECIAL GUEST:
DR. ROSE IOVANNONE

June 17th from 1:00-3:00pm

REGISTER HERE

What: Dr. Rose Iovannone, from the University of South Florida, will share information about universal parenting practices including ways to implement and individualize these for families. Information will include:

- Part 1: An overview of universal behavior support practices that can be used by parents to promote positive behavior, which will include resources and tools that consultants can use to teach and support families learning to implement these practices.
- Part 2: Adaptations to the Prevent Teach Reinforce (PTR) process for implementation in home settings with families.

Who: This webinar will be most relevant to those providing behavioral consultation with families such as school psychologists and behavioral interventionists. Others are welcome to attend, but some prior exposure to PTR is recommended. Note: If you have not attended a PTR training in the past, please watch this brief overview prior to the webinar: <http://wh1.oet.udel.edu/pbs/ptr-forms/>
